

ROUTE 66 CASINO HOTEL ANNOUNCES COMPLIMENTARY MEALS FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT AND EMERGENCY WORKERS

For Immediate Release

(Albuquerque) – The Route 66 Casino Hotel team has announced they will honor law enforcement and emergency workers by offering free meals for an entire week in recognition of National Law Enforcement Appreciation Day on January 9th.

Beginning Sunday January 9th and through Saturday January 15th, all active duty law enforcement and emergency services staff are eligible for one free meal daily with a value of up to $20. The offer will be valid in all the Route 66 award-winning food restaurants including Stadium 66 Sports Bar and Grill, Thunder Road Steak House and Cantina and the Snack Bar. The Laguna Burger in the Route 66 Pit Stop and the Dairy Queen at the Route 66 Travel Center are also included in the week-long thank you effort.

According to Route 66 Casino Hotel General Manager Adrian Fox, “As we talked about how to recognize our law enforcement and emergency workers on Law Enforcement Appreciation Day, we thought about the incredible challenges these folks have faced, particularly over the past two years, so we decided to create an even larger way to say thank you to these men and women by providing free meals for not just a day but an entire week.”

To take advantage of the offer, active law enforcement and emergency services personnel are required to show a badge or credential when ordering. The offer is valid for up to $20 and is limited to one complimentary meal per person, per day.

Laguna Developments Chief Executive Officer Maxine Velasquez said, “The entire team at the Route 66 Campus are eager to welcome these community heroes to our outlets at the casino, travel center or pit stop for a free meal on us. We look forward to saying thank you in person.”

Route 66 Casino Hotel is managed by Laguna Development Corporation, which is owned and operated by the federally recognized tribe of the Pueblo of Laguna. Route 66 Casino is comprised of a 154-room hotel, over 700 slot machines, 12 table games, The Book, Stadium 66 Sports Bar & Grill, Thunder Road Steakhouse & Cantina, RV Park, The Snack Bar and The Pub Lounge. Located conveniently off I-40 on the West side of Albuquerque, Route 66 Casino Hotel is a city favorite that is a fun and entertaining adult experience where locals and travelers come to get their kicks!
